College is putting forward new plans

DUDLEY College has lodged fresh plans for a new teaching centre specialising in construction which will be built at its main campus.

Outdated buildings at the Broadway campus will be demolished to make way for the development, which forms part of the college's £55million learning quarter.

The original proposals were for a combined construction and engineering centre but the college is now looking to build Dudley Advance in Priory Road to cater for engineering students.

Separate plans for this scheme have already been submitted to Dudley College.

College bosses have now lodged an application to amend the outline planning permission which was granted for the combined centre in 2010.

A planning statement, submitted with the application, says the new centre will cater for students from the college's Mons Hill campus, which is due to be sold off and has been earmarked for housing. The floor space of the new buildings, which form the centre, has been reduced from the original.

If the revised plans are approved, a detailed planning application will be submitted at a later date.

Merry Hill to open longer

VISITORS to Dudley's Merry Hill shopping centre will be able to shop for longer in the run up to Christmas, bosses say.

The shopping centre has extended its evening and weekend opening hours for the festive period.

From Monday, it will be open until 10pm on weekdays and until 8pm on Saturdays. The centre will be open until 5pm on Sundays.

Merry Hill marketing manager, Kelly Reed, said: "They hoped the move would give customers more convenience."

CUTS AT COUNCIL TO HIT EVERYONE

by Heather Large

PARKING charges will rise, youth services will be slashed and some home care for the elderly could be withdrawn as part of a multi-million pound cost-cutting budget proposed by Dudley Council.

Council leader Councillor Dave Sparks said the authority had been forced to make savings and was determined to minimise the impact on services. "Unfortunately we are in a financial straitjacket and we are having to do things that we really don't want to do. The government's policy on local government expenditure is forcing councils to make cuts," he said.

Job losses certain says finance chief

THE finance chief of Dudley Council said job losses were inevitable as the authority looks to cut its budget and make massive savings.

Chiefs have announced a three-year savings programme and a voluntary redundancy programme is expected to be approved this week.

Cabinet member for finance Councillor Pete Lowe said it was too early to say how many posts would be affected by the latest cuts but is certain that people will be lose their jobs.

But he added: "It is inevitable that there will be job losses but we will do all we can to keep these to a minimum."

Meanwhile, Dudley Performing Arts, which runs music and dance concerts and classes, is now facing further funding cuts.

The service will no longer hold public events, if cost-cutting plans are given the go-ahead.

Last year DPA was hit by funding cuts forcing it to cancel two major music festivals, which traditionally attracted up to 5,000 people each.

The latest cuts announced by the authority will see the arts body lose £178,000 of its funding in 2013/14.

Parks and streets will not be maintained as often and garden waste will go uncollected for five months of the year, under the plans to save almost £22 million over three years.

It comes on top of more than £30m which has been slashed since 2010, and which has seen 487 voluntary redundancies and 74 compulsory redundancies at the authority.

Further jobs are at risk with a voluntary redundancy programme expected to be approved next week in a bid to keep the number of compulsory redundancies to a minimum.

The council has announced a three-year savings programme with services for children and elderly among those affected.

Landfill

The proposals include introducing wheelie bins for household waste to slash landfill costs and shortening the collection period for garden waste.

Councillor Sparks said the authority had been forced to make savings and was determined to minimise the impact on services.

The figures highlight savings of £10.7m to be made next year, a further £4.8m the following year and £6.3m in 2015/16.

The proposals to reduce budgets would see parking charges in the borough increase by 20 per cent in 2013 and they by a further 10 per cent in 2014.

There are also plans to slash the number of long-term care beds for the elderly while home care services could also be cut back.

"Youth services for 13-19 year olds could be "significantly" reduced and revamped.

Car demolishes garden wall

A CAR overturned and smashed into a garden wall sending bricks hurtling into glass patio doors and parked cars.

The driver, a 22-year-old man, suffered a head injury but was able to escape the wreckage of his car following the crash along Cradley Road, in Netherton, on Sunday at 5.40pm.

He was taken to Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital for further treatment. He also suffered cuts and bruises.

Stunned residents have been picking up the pieces following the smash, which left two vehicles parked on a driveway outside one house badly damaged. The porch doors of another property were smashed and debris scattered all over the drive. The wall runs along the front of two properties along the road and was reduced to rubble by the impact.

Resident Elsie Carter, 91, said she had heard a loud crash and came out to a scene of devastation. The glass in her front patio doors was smashed by flying bricks.

"I was sitting down and just heard this loud noise and wondered what it was," she said. West Midlands Ambulance spokesman John Hawker said: "The man was extremely fortunate not to have suffered more serious injuries."

Grenade found in wardrobe clearout

DOZENS of people were evacuated from their homes when a Second World War grenade was found by a widow sorting out some of her husband's belongings.

Bomb disposal teams arrived to assist in the evacuation of up to 12 homes, in Coppice Lane, Quarry Bank, after the discovery on Monday.

Widow Maureen Chance found the explosive inside a box while she was clearing out a wardrobe of her late husband Leslie's possessions at her home in Birch Avenue.

Mrs Chance, aged 70, carried the grenade in her shopping trolley to show relatives' living in nearby Coppice Lane.

She said: "I was a bit shocked by it all as I'm not sure how Leslie had it in the first place - plus it had been there for a while as he died 12 years ago."

Her niece Rachael Guest said: "I thought 'What is that' as it was quite heavy and had gone a bit rusty but it still had the pin in it."

Police officers arrived at the scene at around 7pm within minutes of them phoning an advice line.

Miss Guest, aged 38, placed the grenade in the back garden of the house on the instruction of explosives experts. Police evacuated homes within around 330ft perimeter as a precaution.

By-election after death

A BY-ELECTION is to be held to fill a council seat left vacant by the death of a long-serving Stourbridge councillor.

Residents will go to the polls to decide who will take on Councillor Malcolm Knowles' seat in the Wollaston and Stourbridge Town ward.

Dudley Council confirmed the by-election would take place but said no timescale had been set at the moment.

Officers for the authority said a notice of vacancy would be published shortly.

Scrapyard blaze hits train services

A BLAZE ripped through a scrap metal yard in Coseley, causing disruption to mainline train services as plumes of smoke drifted across railway tracks.

Up to 200 tons of scrap metal was alight at Geo Johnson (Metals) scrap merchants, in Havacre Lane, near the railway station on Monday. Trains were forced to divert from Coseley as smoke billowed across the tracks. In total, two train services between Wolverhampton and Birmingham were cancelled and five diverted to other stations.

Residents saw flames shooting 20ft into the night sky as the pile of scrap and car parts caught alight at around 8.40pm.

Police closed Havacre Road between Darkhouse Lane and Anchor Road close to a railway bridge, while dozens of firefighters from Bilston, Dudley and Tipton stations fought the fierce flames.

Once it was under control, workers from the company helped crews by using machinery to move the pile of metal so firefighters could tackle all parts of the blaze.

Water was pumped from the nearby Coseley Canal, with hoses dragged across Havacre Road blocking traffic. Watch Commander Ade Cope, of Bilston Fire Station, said crews were faced with a very severe blaze. "It was a very well developed fire when we arrived with smoke and flames going very high into the sky," he said. "We were able to stop the fire escalating," he said.

Firefighters remained at the scene for eight hours. The cause of the blaze is still being investigated.

Train operator London Midland asked travellers to use rail tickets on the Midland Metro or buses between Wolverhampton and Birmingham.

£3m canal exhibition centre plans unveiled

A £3 MILLION education, exhibition and heritage centre could be built by Dudley Canal Trust under new plans. The two-storey building, called The Portal, which would be sited at the canal tunnel entrance at Todds End, would outline the Black Country's industrial past.

David Trevis-Smith

The top floor of the centre would provide access from the boat trips car park off Birmingham New Road.

A lift would be installed to enable people to get to and from the towpath and visitor embarkation wharf.

A swing bridge would also be installed to enable visitors from the Black Country Living Museum on the opposite side of the canal to access the ticket office, trip boats and heritage and learning centre.

A planning application for the scheme has been lodged with Dudley Council and a bid for Heritage Lottery cash to help fund the project has also been submitted.

Project manager David Trevis-Smith said if everything goes according to plan, work will get under way on the building in October next year and it will be ready to welcome visitors in summer 2014.

"This is something Dudley Canal Trust has been working on, with partners, for a quite a number of years," he said.

"The building will be a great addition for Dudley Canal Trust."

"This is something that Dudley Canal Trust has been working on, with partners, for a quite a number of years. The building will be a great addition for Dudley Canal Trust."

Tens of thousands of people visit the network of canal tunnels every year. The canal trust is inviting members and supporters to make donations to the scheme. For information visit www.dudleycanaltrust.org.uk

Mike's jungle journey planned

Councillor Melvyn Mottram, Mayor of Dudley, with Mike Crannage and Charlie, a macaw

SUPER-fit Dudley mayoral attendant Mike Crannage, who has raised thousands for charity, is planning his next daring adventure in a South American jungle.

The 53-year-old plans a gruelling 150-mile coast-to-coast race through the jungles of Costa Rica. Last year he ran 150 miles through the Sahara Desert, braving sweltering temperatures and towering sand dunes. For his latest challenge, he will trek, run, climb, abseil and swim the equivalent of almost six marathons through hazardous terrain. The former army man will have to complete the distance, from Quepos on the Pacific Coast to Tortuguero on the Caribbean Sea, in just 10 days. The money he raises from the challenge, on February 2 next year, will be donated to the Mayor of Dudley's charities - Diabetes UK; Stourbridge, Dudley and District Support Group and the Dudley Stroke Association. Mr Genge was born in Lanesfield and started his career at engineering firm John Thompson before training to be a teacher.

Targeting thefts of mobiles

THIEVES are stealing around 500 expensive iPhone and BlackBerry mobiles every month in the West Midlands, police have revealed.

Pickpockets are cruising busy pubs, clubs and shopping centres, looking for opportunities to snatch devices, officers say.

Police have now launched a crackdown ahead of the festive season when more phones are purchased and venues become busier.

Figures from West Midlands Police show an average of almost 500 iPhones and BlackBerry devices are stolen every month.

Officers say this amounts to around 75 per cent of all phone thefts reported.

Staffordshire Police said 1,454 mobile phones were stolen between April and September – an average of 242 per month. This included 310 iPhones and 277 BlackBerry phones.

West Midlands officers have now launched a new crackdown with an awareness campaign ahead of the Christmas period.

They say the operation is timely in light of the recent launch of the new Apple iPhone 5, worth at least £529.

£1m work is completed

A £1 million scheme to replace outdated facilities at a Dudley crematorium has been completed.

New cremators have been installed at Gornal Wood Cemetery and Crematorium, in Chase Road, during the six-month improvement to bring the site into line with emission regulations.

Two cremators have been installed, one of which will also accommodate larger coffins.

The site's chapel has also been decorated. The crematorium will return to full opening from November 5, after a restricted service.

Fungi fun time

THERE'S a chance to discover what lies in the undergrowth at a Dudley nature reserve this weekend.

A fungi foray will take place on November 3 at The Leasowes, Halesowen, led by expert Nick Williams.

The walk will be starting at 2.30 and finishes at 4.30pm.

Places need to be booked on 01384 814642.

Camra round table to fight for King Arthur

The King Arthur pub in Dudley

REAL ale campaigners are opposing an application to flatten the King Arthur pub in Dudley.

The move has shocked locals, with some saying the building should be preserved.

Anthony Hitchmough, pub preservation officer for Dudley and South Staffordshire Campaign for Real Ale (Camra), has written to Dudley Council saying he believes the pub, on the corner of Priory Road and Birmingham New Road, should not be demolished.

It was built in the 1920s and was a roadhouse, attracting mostly customers with cars from further afield. The site has planning permission for a 70-bedroom hotel extension.

In his letter, Mr Hitchmough says: "Why demolish it, when planning permission to extend and provide accommodation has been granted?"

"Dudley is short of accommodation."

A notice has been put up at the site informing people that an application to demolish the pub has been submitted. It is not yet known whether another use for the site has been found.

Ward councillor Alan Finch has already spoken of his shock at hearing the news, saying it was "a shame". Owner Amrinder Sandhu was granted planning permission for the £3.5 million hotel project in April 2010.

Work had been expected to start that summer. Mr Sandhu said at the time he needed to develop the site to supplement pub income and to prevent the building from falling into disrepair.

But in September 2010, the pub was put up for sale with estate agent Christie & Co. It was later withdrawn from their books.

Mr Sandhu was unavailable for comment.

Lifetime pet ban on brother and sister as dog destroyed

A BROTHER and sister who kept 16 pets in squalid conditions have been told they cannot keep animals again. RSPCA officers found Lawrence and Shirley Anne Griffin's dog Rocky lying on the living room floor covered in its own mess.

They were called after the pair were evicted from their previous address in Chestnut Drive, Dudley, on January 11. Magistrates heard the 15-year-old was treated by a vet but had to be put down as the dog had only been able to move its head and had a tumour on its stomach.

Five snakes, two cats, three birds, two lizards, a gerbil and two mice were also at the home.

Mr Griffin, 55, of Stourbridge Road, Brierley Hill, each received a 12-week jail term suspended for 12 months and 150 hours unpaid work.

Snakes

They were told to pay court costs of £779 – a total of £1,558 between them, alongside the lifetime ban.

Other animals, including snakes, were kept. Although their cages had not been cleaned they had access to food and water and were in a "reasonable condition".

The pair previously admitted causing unnecessary suffering to the dog and to not providing a suitable environment for the animal which was hygienic.

Mrs Gaynor Sutton, prosecuting on behalf of the RSPCA, said: "The dog was lying in the living room just behind the door. It was on its left side and was at first sight unrecognisable.

"The officer checked the dog's stomach and could count the bones and ribs.

"The house was squalid and filthy. The carpet was covered in general filth.

"A police officer described the smell as the worst he had ever smelled."

Mrs Sutton said vets found the dog was dehydrated and had arthritis.

Mr Tim Gascoyne, defending, said: "They have taken responsibility for what they have done and pleaded guilty at the earliest opportunity. They did not know about the tumour and say the dog was given food. They did not know why the animal was losing weight."

Miss Griffin tried to clean the dog but said it had growled at her.

Ex-teacher downloaded child porn

Matthew Bullas

A FORMER teacher has admitted having almost 100,000 indecent images of children stored on computer memory sticks.

Matthew Bullas, formerly a PE teacher at Dudley's Castle High School, downloaded photographs and videos from the internet during a "period of depression".

The 32-year-old, of Hamilton Drive, Stourbridge, was arrested at his previous address in Halesowen on November 16 and computer equipment was seized.

A total of 98,972 images were found by officers spread across five memory sticks. Bullas, who was sacked from the school, was sentenced at Wolverhampton Crown Court last week.

He was given a three-year community order with a requirement to attend the Internet Offenders Treatment Programme and given supervision. Bullas was also placed under a Sex Offender Prevention Order for 10 years and on the Sex Offenders Register for five years.

None of the images featured children at the school where he worked. Mr Danny Smith, defending, said his client was of previous good character. "He had suffered a breakdown in his life which had vortexed into debt and depression," he said. "He had suffered the loss of a relationship and his grandparents and could not deal with this emotional burden."

Judge Michael Dudley said: "These offences are serious. For these images to be made of a real child has been abused."

Free parking on cards in run up to Christmas

FORTY car parks in Dudley borough will be offering free parking in the run up to Christmas in an effort to attract more shoppers to the High Street. Charges will be suspended on selected evenings and Saturdays in December.

Glowing report on five clubs

FIVE Dudley borough clubs for children with disabilities have received a glowing report after an inspection by Ofsted.

The clubs, run by Dudley Council's youth service, are at Greenhill Youth Centre, Russells Hall Neighbourhood Centre, Lower Gornal Youth Centre, The Source, Wordsley and Valley Road Youth Centre, Lye.

The clubs are for young people with learning disabilities and include partnership support from Kids Orchard, Autistic Parent Support Group and Autism Outreach.

Successful grant applications have enabled four of the centres to add sensory rooms, new equipment and extend the holiday activity programmes.

Ofsted inspectors visited the centres in July to observe activities and to interview staff, young people and their parents and carers. The service was praised for its partnership work with parents and carers, special schools and voluntary organisations.

The report highlighted the fact "a number of disabled young people have been supported to take on volunteer and leadership roles within the centres, improving their self-confidence."

Dudley, Cannock and Wyre Forest Councils have pledged to offer free festive parking while Wolverhampton, Walsall and Sandwell Councils are considering their options.

There will be free Saturday car parking on 40 car parks across Dudley that would normally charge on December 10, 17 and 24.

Charges will also be suspended on one evening to coincide with late night shopping and the Christmas lights switch on in Dudley, Stourbridge, Halesowen and Brierley Hill.

Fees in Dudley usually range from 40p for an hour to over £2.50 for over three hours, while in Cannock they range from 90p an hour up to £11.50 for six hours depending on the location.

Goodwill

Dudley transport boss Councillor Judy Foster said: "The suspension of car park charges is seen as a goodwill gesture on behalf of the council and an added incentive for shoppers to visit the borough on the run up to Christmas."

It could end up costing Dudley Council £20,000 in lost revenue from parking charges but extra takings expected during the festive season could bring the shortfall down to around £10,000.

Cannock Chase Council will offer free parking on all of its car parks on December 15 and 22.

Free car parking will also be available in Wyre Forest before Christmas and over the New Year on council-run car parks after 4pm.

Time for free tickets, oh yes it is

Panto star Nigel Ellacott visits Dudley Castle and Zoo which is sponsoring the dress rehearsal of Jack and the Beanstalk at The Grand, Wolverhampton

MORE than 1,000 free tickets are being given away for the dress rehearsal of this year's pantomime at Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre, Jack and the Beanstalk.

Dudley Zoo is on the lookout for worthy charities and community organisations that would like to attend on December 7.

The family favourite will feature Loose

Women presenter Sherrie Hewson, veteran entertainer Keith Harris, plus the lovable Orville, with Nigel Ellacott joining the line-up as the distinctive dame. Dudley Zoo is sponsoring the dress rehearsal and wants groups interested in attending to get in touch. Call 01384 215313 or email julia.marketing@dudleyzoo.org.uk.

Libraries service opinions wanted

PEOPLE can have their say about Dudley Council's library service this month.

The service will be carrying out an adult user survey from November 12 to 18.

People visiting any library in the borough during this time will be asked to complete the survey and give their opinion on topics such as computer facilities, book stock, information provision, the look of the libraries and customer care.

The completed surveys will be sent to the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy (CIPFA) and the results will be out next year. The results will be used to help assess and further improve services.

Since the last adult survey in 2009 Dudley Libraries have continued to make improvements in areas such as extending opening hours to seven days, installing new IT and wi-fi facilities, completing refurbishments, improving stock, creating easy customer access and providing self-service facilities.

Councillor Khurshid Ahmed, said: "In recent years our libraries have been modernised to reflect the needs of our customers."

Information on donating

VISITORS to Dudley libraries can now get information on how to sign up to the Organ Donor Register and give blood. Information points have been set up at all libraries so people can get involved.

This year, Dudley Council became one of just two local authorities to sign up to a partnership with NHS Blood and Transplant, which aims to increase the organ and blood donation rates among staff and borough residents.

Councillor Khurshid Ahmed, said: "Libraries are extremely versatile in the information and services they provide."

Hundreds pay their respects

HUNDREDS turned out to pay their final respects to a long-serving councillor and former mayor of Dudley who died earlier this month aged 79.

A service of thanksgiving and celebration for the life of Councillor Malcolm Knowles was held at St Thomas's Church, in Stourbridge. It followed an earlier private cremation service.

Residents, friends, civic dignitaries and Dudley Council workers filled the church in Market Street, last week to honour Councillor Knowles.

Among those gathered were Dudley's present mayor Councillor Melvyn Mottram and councillors from all parties on the authority.

Classic cars, one of the father-of-three's passions, were parked up along the street by friends before the service as a tribute.

The service was led by Councillor Knowles' friend and fellow councillor Liz Walker who is a minister in the Diocese of Worcester.

It was Councillor Knowles' personal request she conduct the service.

The gathering stood to sing Jerusalem as his family entered the church before councillor Walker gave an introduction.

Tax benefits will change

RESIDENTS on council tax benefits in Kidderminster, Stourport and Bewdley may have to dip into their own pockets to pay 10 per cent of it themselves from next year.

Wyre Forest Council decided to recommend that the district overview and scrutiny committee approves a package which would include the cut in support for people of working age who are eligible for council tax benefit.

But the council would set up a "hardship fund" to help out those least able to pay a proportion of their council taxes. The decision follows the Government slashing 10 per cent off grants to local authorities to cover council tax benefits.

Talking history

BELBROUGHTON History Society is hosting a talk, by David Clark, former Mayor of Worcester, on November 21.

The event will start at 8pm at Belbroughton Church Hall.

The admission charge for the evening will be £2.50.

Borough volunteers honoured with awards

UNSUNG heroes who volunteer their time to help others and make a positive difference to their community have been honoured at an annual awards ceremony.

Individuals and groups were recognised for their dedication to good causes when the Dudley Volunteer Awards event was held at Brierley Hill Civic Hall.

And it came as shock to the recipients who had no idea they would be getting an award – and in some cases thought they were going along to see others honoured.

The awards are staged by Dudley CVS and among the winners were Jasper and Marva Nisbett, of Lawnswood Road, Lower Gornal, who have helped others in the community for more than 30 years. They received the Community Action Award.

Mrs Nisbett, aged 73, cooks and delivers meals and also makes hospital visits to the sick and elderly. The former district midwife also collects and delivers food for the Black Country Food Bank.

Mr Nisbett, 72, takes older people shopping or to doctors appointments and helps with other errands. Mrs Nisbett, who has undergone a serious heart operation in the past, said: "We were really surprised to receive the award. We had absolutely no idea. We both get enormous satisfaction from helping people in the community."

Sandra Emery, 57, from Brierley Hill, received the Health and Well-Being Award. Despite having multiple sclerosis, the mother-of-two works to improve services for disabled people and supports the Wolverhampton MS therapy centre. "I love volunteering. It gives me a purpose. I am very proud to have received the award," she said.

Trevor Conway, of Colesey, received the Environmental Achievement Award. He supports the warden service at Wrens Nest

Nature Reserve four days every week. He assists in wildlife recording.

The Safe and Sound Award was presented to the Recovery In Progress Team in Lye. It helps drug addicts turn their lives around. The volunteers are people who have successfully battled addiction themselves.

The Children and Families accolade was presented to the Sycamore Adventure Volunteers group on the Oak Park Farm estate, Dudley. Bob Hickman, 60, of Walmley Close, Halesowen, was named this year's Sporting Champion for his work with Halas Hawks Junior Football Club.

Traders relieved as roads reopen after major works

TWO roads in the Black Country hit by six months of repair works have fully reopened – bringing relief to traders who say they have lost thousands of pounds.

But temporary traffic lights along streets on the border of Halesowen and Rowley Regis will remain in place for the next few days as the work is completed.

Coombs Road and Gorsty Hill Road were made one-way in April while South Staff Water and National Grid carried out the £500,000 project. Traders said takings had dropped by half in that time.

Bosses said customers were being put off by a lack of parking and heavy traffic.

They are now drawing up claims for compensation for the money lost in recent months.

Stephanie Cox, landlady of the Bell and Bear pub in Gorsty Hill Road, said: "There is still a backlog of traffic building up from the lights but it will make things much better now the road is two-way again."

"The problem now is making people realise that it is all open and hope they can start coming again."

Bosses at the Olympia chip shop, Coombs Road were losing £500 a week and profits halved since work started.

Owner and mother-of-two Dalvinder Kaur said she was relieved the road had opened again but said the works had "wrecked" their business.

There are four-way temporary lights at the junction of Coombs Road, Haden Hill Road, Dudley Road and Furnace Hill.

Drivers have faced delays during rush hour but the council says disruption will be reduced as the phasing of the signals will be changed for the final 10 days of the work before it is completed around mid-November.

Councillor Judy Foster, cabinet member for transport, said: "The utility works are progressing well. The one-way system on Coombs Road has been removed which has improved traffic flow in the area. The utility companies tell us they are due to complete all their work by mid November. We apologise to residents, business and motorists for any disruption caused."

Pool swimmer dies

A PENSIONER who was pulled unconscious from the swimming pool at Dudley Leisure Centre has died.

The man, believed to be aged 74, and a regular at the pool, was taken to Dudley's Russells Hall Hospital but died shortly afterwards. Ambulance crews were called to the Wellington Road centre at around 8.15am on Friday.

West Midlands Ambulance spokesman John Hawker said paramedics arrived to find resuscitation attempts under way.

"Unfortunately, despite the best efforts of everyone at the scene ... nothing could be done to save the man and he was confirmed dead shortly after arriving at hospital," he said.

Lighter side of horror director's work

Museum assistant Barry Armstrong, looks at the work

A piece showcasing Mr Whale's cartoon-like style

James Whale

PREVIOUSLY unseen cartoons, paintings and illustrations by a Dudley-born film director have gone on display in his home town.

The exhibition, Horror in Hollywood: The James Whale story, includes images from a selection of more than 70 unseen pieces of work.

They range from his time in the Holmwood camp during the First World War through to paintings he did in his retirement in California.

The pieces have been loaned to the museum by Whale's great-great niece, animator Cath Lloyd. The bulk of the work was kept in two suitcases in the attic at Cath's grandmother's house.

Whale, who died in 1957 aged 67, came from humble beginnings in Park Hill Street, Buffery Park, to become one of cinema's most influential directors. His work included such classics as Frankenstein and the Invisible Man in the 1930s.

One of six children born to a blast furnaceman and a nurse, he attended Kate's Hill Board School, Bayliss Charity School and Dudley Blue Coat School. His brothers went to work in heavy industry, but he was not strong enough so worked as a cobbler's apprentice.

Although famed as a director, Mr Whale began his career as an artist, actor and stage manager before making the transition to directing, first in the theatre and then the silver screen.

Many of the pieces are from his sketch books, featuring cartoons and witty captions. The exhibition at Dudley Museum and Art Gallery runs until January 12.

NEWS in brief

Three cottages set to be restored

THREE historic carpet weavers' cottages which date back more than 200 years will finally be restored under new plans.

There were fears the homes, which are empty in Kidderminster's Horsefair, would have to be demolished because of escalating repair costs.

But a project has been launched by the Worcestershire Building Preservation Trust to preserve the homes for future generations. Numbers 20, 21 and 22, known as the Weavers' Cottages, are Grade II-listed.

Scouts' plans rescued by kindness of local people

FORMER Scouts, businesses and locals have rallied round to raise cash and donate equipment to a Dudley troop left "gutted" when burglars raided their HQ.

The break-in at 1st Bromley-Pensnett Scout group's hut in September scuppered the youngsters' plans for an autumn camp.

But, thanks to the generosity of the local community – including donations from elderly ex-Scouts – they will be off on a Christmas camp instead. Nearly 40 people who were upset to hear about their predicament have donated money or goods.

"We've been very touched by the response, especially as this is quite a deprived area," said Belinda Garratt, Beaver Scout leader and wife of Scout leader Andrew Garratt.

"We've been given a gazebo, eight new tents, axes, a camping cooker, items to sell at a car boot sale, and several cheques, including one for £1,000, another for £250, one for £200 and a couple for £100.

"Some of the donations have come from elderly people in the area who have scouting backgrounds – and they've been very generous. One man even gave us a new door to replace the one damaged in the break-in and came to fit it for us."

The troop has now invited all of the contributors to a special evening to thank them at the headquarters in Bromley, Pensnett, on November 23 at 6pm. More than 60 Scouts at the group were left "gutted" after burglars broke in.

Milk message from MP

AN MP spoke of the importance of youngsters drinking milk when she visited a playgroup.

Margot James, MP for Stourbridge, spoke to bosses at Withymoor Playgroup in Brierley Hill, where children are encouraged to sit together on a "milk break". School milk is free for children in daycare or primary education under the age of five.

Youngsters show talent

Performers in Areley Kings Got Talent including winner Holly Brown, front second from right, dressed as a chimney sweep

CHILDREN in Stourport proved that they'd got talent at a competition held over two evenings at Areley Kings Village Hall.

The Areley Kings Got Talent contest attracted 22 acts, aged seven to 11, who sang, danced or played an instrument.

The performers appeared in front of a packed house of parents and friends and gave the four experienced judges a challenge in choosing just 10 performers for the finals.

The finalists then performed in front of another packed audience on October 12, when singer and dancer Holly Brown, aged 10, took first place, winning the Jim Perry Cup and £30.

Singer Hannah Law, aged 11, was second and singer Mackenzie Lauren Mapp, 10, third.

Ten-year-old Alex Mills, who also entered as a singer, took the Graham Baldwin Cup for the best performer of the opposite gender to the winner – and Ella Kendrick carried off the Hazel Yates Cup for best seven-year-old. The event was supported by local organisations.

Time to think big over theatre

ATTENTION has been drawn to the proposals of The Friends of the Hippodrome to renovate this former theatre with a view to restoring it.

As I understand it, plans to proceed with the necessary financial arrangements, restoration works and theatrical consultations are in hand and that certain celebrities have already expressed their support.

Whilst Dudley Council has a demolition order imposed on the property no meaningful application for funding can proceed. In the meantime, the matter is at a standstill.

I do not know whether removal of the order is yet in hand, but wake up people of Dudley and ensure it happens and avoid the disgrace of demolition!

Destroying a fine theatre building to enhance a leisure complex does not make sense. Business people do not demolish their assets so why did Dudley buy the building?

It seems an alternative proposal for this land, at one of the gateways to Dudley, is to construct a car park. There is, of course, already a large car park to the rear of the property adjoining Dudley Zoo.

Dudley Hippodrome is arguably the largest building of its kind in the country and no doubt other cities and towns envy Dudley and would wish to have something similar.

The whole of the Black Country lacks a theatre of this dimension. This is a non-political issue.

Is it not time for the councillors of Dudley to think less parochially and vote to remove the order which stands in the way of progress before the bulldozers move in?

Now is the time to think big and to look to the future of Dudley.

BBC still a world best in spite of criticisms

MY word, yet another anti BBC hissy fit by the boy Rhodes because he thinks it is occasionally biased against his Tory government.

In his piece on October 23 he couldn't bear the BBC Radio 4 Today on October 20, because they dared to mention Labour criticism of Cameron's leadership, even though many of our own party don't rate him.

They also mentioned "Pleggate" and the appalling Andrew Mitchell. This reminded me of Rhodes' fury at the exposure of the Murdoch and Rebecca Brookers phone hacking scandal and her close friendship with the Camerons. The BBC is a world best, despite trash like Eastenders and too many unfunny comedians. I will always trust Paxman and colleagues to get the balance right.

We have done our bit now you do yours

SO according to certain sectors of society, predominately the younger generations, we old ones should contribute more to the Treasury by a) working longer; b) losing free TV licences; c) losing winter fuel allowances and d) losing our bus passes etc.

I would like to remind those of the younger generation that us old ones, in general, have worked for more than 50 years to earn sufficient to get married, bring up a family without child benefit for the first one and then a generous £8 for the next one. Contributed all our working life by paying NI and into a company pension which I could ill afford at the time as my wife and I were bringing up a young family of three so we went without. Had my career interrupted by two years National Service on active service in the Canal Zone, Egypt protecting Great Britain's and the free world's interests. Have done unpaid work for the benefit of my fellow man by serving as a parish councillor for years, setting up a Neighbourhood Watch and serving as chairman on the South Staffs Crime Prevention Panel. What more do the younger generation expect of us? We have done our bit, now it is up to you.

Let's fight back over high call charging

WHEN is someone eventually gonna fight back against these stupidly high priced telephone numbers which we are then deliberately placed on hold to push the cost of the call up even further?

My girlfriend had a mobile phone bill of £125 because of the calls to the Department of Works and Pensions.

All she was trying to do was sort her mom's claim out after her father had died and also try to sort her daughter's government training course out. She can't afford to pay the bill.

It's always the poor unfortunate who get penalised.

Calls to an ever-decreasing quality of government customer service should be paid for by them for their incompetence and not by the claimant.

Why have a conservatory when you can have an Orangery from £9,999

Imagine an elegant and comfortable room, a warm and bright space that is the envy of all. This is what an orangery will bring to your home. Relax in style on warm summer days and enjoy a feeling of comfort and warmth even on long winter evenings.

Orangeries provide a unique multi-purpose living space for every home, from kitchen extension, living room, dining room or playroom. Our orangery uses the market leading Global roof with a well-engineered internal pel met framework, which is then plastered, giving the roof a perimeter ceiling all the way round. Within this perimeter roof you can choose to add down lighters or audio speakers, giving you the opportunity to personalise your new room.

The gutter line of the roof of the orangery is hidden from view by a decorative cornice that rises above the flat section and this cornice conceals the orangery gutter for a more attractive external appearance. A fully glazed conservatory might not be to everyone's taste, therefore the combination of traditionally built features and glazing of an orangery creates a more substantial and interesting effect.

Fresh bid is launched to get 140 homes built

DEVELOPERS have launched a bid to get plans for 140 homes, a craft village and nursing home on a historic former brickworks approved at the second attempt after they were thrown out by council chiefs.

A planning inquiry is being held into the proposals for Baggeridge Brickworks, Gospel End, Sedgley. David Wilson Homes and site owners Weinerberger have appealed against South Staffordshire Council's decision to refuse planning permission earlier this year.

Councillors had argued the development would be too large for the village – but developers claim it would boost the area's economy and attract new visitors.

The applicants are hoping to convince the Planning Inspectorate to overturn the council's original decision and give the go-ahead.

The inquiry has heard that the plans go against the Black Country Core Strategy, which lays out guidelines for major building projects in the region.

Mr Satnam Chongh, representing the council, said the document made it

by Adam Burling

"clear" there should be no new housing developments other than in "major villages", which he says does not include Gospel End.

He argued, as the site lies in green belt, it could only get planning permission under "special circumstances".

However, the developers claim the land is among green belt sites that the council had said could be built on in the future.

"We have found a sustainable location where we can start a development that will have benefits for the area," said David Bridgwood, associate director for engineering firm Wardell Armstrong, on behalf of the applicants.

The plans include 12 craft workshops, a 60-bedroom nursing home and new road access from the A463.

Help is on the cards

Garry Sawers who has made the Christmas cards

A SIGNWRITER and supporter of under-threat Dudley Hippodrome has created a selection of dedicated Christmas cards to show his backing to the campaign to save it.

Tipton-born Garry Sawers, 54 has backed the bid to stop the former theatre from being demolished.

The colourful cards are decorated with a picture of the former theatre and two hippos standing in front of the building. Inside the card, the greeting says: "Wishing you a bostin' Christmas". Mr Sawers, of Pensnett said he wanted to do something to help with the campaign to reopen the building.

Petition

More than 10,000 people have now signed a petition calling for it to be saved and The Friends of the Hippodrome group is finalising a costed business plan for the future.

Mr Sawers said: "The Hippodrome means a lot to people in Dudley, it is such a landmark. I just wanted to do my bit to help and I thought the Christmas cards would add a bit of festive cheer."

"If they prove popular I plan to create a range of different designs," Mr Sawers is asking for donations in return for the cards to go towards the campaign. He has even decorated the spare wheel on the back of his Honda CRV with the hippodrome design. To purchase Christmas cards contact Gaz at www.gazart.co.uk.

Boss skimmed £20,000 in nursing home fraud

Mooch around studio

A LIVE music venue and recording studio has opened in Stourbridge bringing 12 part-time and full-time jobs.

Moochers Jailhouse has been created at the former Conservative Club building in New Road.

More than 100 people came on the opening night to watch performances from Wales band The Guns and Kidderminster band Mooch, which is the club's house band.

Co-director Ross Syner, aged 21, said: "These are exciting times."

"We've been speaking to a lot of people from the area and they say a venue like this is needed. We want to put on original live bands for people in Stourbridge. There are a lot of local bands here but there is no clear circuit.

"A lot of bands have to go out to Birmingham to get a decent gig so this is about giving them something closer to home."

"We're lining up some good bands for the coming months so hopefully we'll get a lot of interest."

"We're not looking to take on pubs in the area, we love pub gigs, we just want to offer people something different."

THE finance chief of a Wall Heath nursing home raided savings to buy toiletries for residents while plundering £20,000 from its bank accounts.

Debt-ridden Tracy Bennett secretly moved almost £3,000 into a personal bank account to pay her bills and then fiddled the books to try and cover up the three-and-a-half month crime spree, a judge heard.

She forged signatures on receipts that suggested cash had gone on buying a specialist chair, solicitor's fees or other expenses for residents at Holbeche House.

The 40-year-old single mother of twin girls also syphoned off a further £17,545 paid by local authorities to cover the accommodation costs of people living at the home, Wolverhampton Crown court was told.

Bennett joined the staff at Holbeche House in 2008 and worked her way up to become in charge of the finances.

Mr Edward Soulsby, prosecuting, said: "When arrested, Bennett only admitted those offences that were incontrovertible and showed no remorse, blaming it all on her depression."

Bennett, of Broad Street, Kingswinford, admitted two charges of fraud involving a total of £20,496 and was given a 42-week jail sentence suspended for two years.

Bennett may be forced to hand over money and other assets from a proceeds of crim hearing in February.

Mr Bernard Porter, defending, revealed at Wolverhampton Crown Court that £8,500 found in Bennett's account when the scam was uncovered had since been frozen.

Police hunting criminal

DETECTIVES are hunting for a Stourbridge man who is wanted for recall to prison.

Donovan Taylor, aged 34, has not been complying with the terms of his licence and is believed to have continued to commit crime. He is a mixed race man, 5ft 10ins with black hair. Call Dudley police on 101.

Man with £11,000 drugs has been given jail term

A MAN caught with a haul of drugs worth £11,000 and a stun gun has been jailed for four-and-a-half years.

Drug dealer Ryan Harper was arrested in March after police found the weapon in his car and drugs in his home.

He was released on bail and during that time officers returned to his home in Fairgreen Gardens, Pensnett, in July and found more illegal drugs. Mr Mark Rees, prosecuting, told Wolverhampton Crown Court: "On March 30 this year, police officers stopped the defendant in his car."

"In that car they found a stun gun which could cause significant harm. Having arrested the defendant, officers searched his home address. They found substantial quantity of drugs with an overall street value of £11,000."

Officers seized cannabis, methadone, cocaine and 1,656 diazepam tablets.

They also found digital scales and cling film used in the preparation of drugs with a view to selling it. In interview by police, former mechanic Harper said the drugs were for his own personal use and he was jailed.

When officers visited his home on July 17 they found more drugs including crack cocaine and £340. Harper, aged 22, previously admitted eight charges of possessing drugs with intent to supply and possessing a prohibited weapon.

Mr Timothy Talbot-Webb, defending, said his client had become a drug dealer as a result of falling into debts due to his own drug use. The court heard Harper had a £350-a-week cocaine habit at the time.

Appeal to lower speed on roads

AN "inappropriate" speed limit along some of a Dudley town's oldest streets could be cut following calls from residents.

People living in Stourbridge's Old Quarter want the existing 30mph limit to be reduced to 20mph.

Officials from Dudley Council have agreed to look into the issue after hearing of the concerns.

Residents say the roads are not suited to the amount of traffic and there is even less space to manoeuvre due to on-street parking. They have been supported by councillors, who say the speed limit is too fast.

Councillor Judy Foster said: "The council will be considering the installation of a number of 20mph zones outside schools. This may not be appropriate or easily enforceable in other areas. However, we will have a look at the issues raised about Stourbridge Old Quarter. We will see if there is any work that can be done."

Ernie's in the beak of condition once again

Ernie with senior zoo keeper Laura Robbins after his trip to the animal hospital where he had his beak trimmed

ERNIE the African tortoise at Dudley Zoo can happily munch away on his favourite food again after having his beak trimmed.

Keepers noticed the tortoise's bite was not quite meeting properly in the middle and, although it was not causing him any distress, the zoo vet decided to trim it back quickly and easily.

Zoo chief executive Peter Suddock said: "The vet used a mini orthopaedic grinder to trim Ernie's beak, a piece of equipment used to treat claw, bone, hoof and horn on other animals."

"It took about 20 minutes in the zoo's animal hospital. Ernie didn't seem at all bothered and was soon back in the paddock munching on his favourite dandelions."

Mental health is to be focus of public forum

Dudley Clinical Commissioning Group is staging the event on November 6 at Saltwells Education Centre in Netherton at 4.30pm.

Information will be available about areas of mental health services including dementia care, therapy and children's services.

Helen Ashford, of NHS Dudley, said: "Dudley CCG is taking over from NHS Dudley and is responsible for buying your healthcare locally."

"They value the input we gain from the people who attend the healthcare forum which is now clinically led, and want to know what you think they should be concentrating on in terms of priorities in healthcare in the future." To book a place call 01384 321719.

Pupils start as asbestos is removed

RECEPTION pupils were finally starting lessons at a school after asbestos was found there.

Ceilings were being refurbished at Cotwall End Primary, Sedgley, as the potentially harmful material was found, delaying work.

Fifty children, aged four and five, should have started on September 4 but were instead accommodated at The Straits Primary.

The rest of the school has opened as usual since the start of the school year.

Nicole Anderton, Cotwall End Primary head, said: "We are really pleased that the children are back with us today. Their reception class looks really beautiful."

Blueprint aiming to shape centre

A BLUEPRINT to help shape the future of Halesowen town centre has been drawn up.

Halesowen Area Action Plan will help guide investment and identify where shops, homes and leisure developments will be.

The plan says there is a surplus of parking spaces, and that some could make way for shops and businesses.

One suggested site is office block Trinity Point and the High Street car park, which is under-used.

Among other sites is the Pool Road car park, owned by Dudley Council, which bosses say is suitable for retail.

The council also wants to encourage more people to live in the town centre. The plan says: "The re-use of vacant upper floors in a town centre location is one way of helping a town to become a living place 24 hours a day."

Council bosses are set to launch a public consultation. A report due before Dudley Council's Cabinet recommends it runs from November 9 until December 12.

Director for the urban environment, John Millar, said: "Following this consultation, it is anticipated that the Area Action Plan will be submitted to the Planning Inspectorate during early 2013."

£2.3m sports shake-up is planned for academy

A £2.3 million sports hall and outdoor all-weather pitch will be built at a Dudley academy under plans to boost ailing facilities.

Staff say the sports hall and changing rooms at Holly Hall Academy are among the worst in the borough. The roof leaked creating about £30,000 of running repairs.

Part of the floor started to collapse, prompting head Graham Lloyd to call for new facilities. Staff also say that a Redgra outdoor pitch at the Scotts Green Close school, is "unusable" and needs replacing.

Plans are dependent on Holly Hall getting a share of a £276 million capital funding pot from the Government and planning permission is needed to boost chances of the funding bid being accepted. Mr Lloyd said: "Our children deserve the best sports facilities but at the moment they are below par."

Plans recommended for approval at a council planning meeting include an astro-turf pitch over the Redgra surface along with six floodlights and a new sports hall being built on grassed land on the site.

Sports England officials raised concerns about proposals to build on existing sports fields. The organisation's planning manager John Berry said that the development should not be to the detriment of the existing sports fields and running track.

Pop-up shop offering help for youngsters

Cutting the shop ribbon is Dudley North MP Ian Austin watched by Kayleigh Finlayson of Dudley and Chris Luty, a director of BCTG, the group behind the project

A 'POP-up shop' offering unemployed teenagers help with training and finding a job has opened in Dudley.

Training experts BCTG have set up in former estate agents shop in Stone Street. The firm says it wants to take advantage of the empty premises so it can target teenagers currently not in education, training or employment.

The shop, opened by Dudley North MP Ian Austin, is open until November 23. BCTG director Chris Luty said it was a cost-effective way to provide a short-term centre for seven training providers. It is open Wednesday to Saturday with staff from training providers NACRO, Rathbone, Nova, St Thomas Network, Groundwork, Landau, YMCA as well as BASE Studios and Targeted Training Projects.

Warning is issued over celebrations

FIRE service bosses are warning people to take care during Bonfire Night and Diwali celebrations.

Hereford & Worcester Fire and Rescue Service also issued advice to schools for teachers to promote firework and bonfire safety.

They are also encouraging people to go to an organised bonfire and firework display if they can.

Station commander Alan Haley said: "We recognise that many people will be holding their own bonfire parties and get-togethers."

"And we want to remind them of some simple firework and bonfire safety tips to help avoid injury or any damage to their property."

Winners at college

DUDLEY College has been visited by the winners of Libya's young enterprise award as part of its work with the British Council.

The delegates, who competed on a regional and national level, saw their entrepreneurial skills rewarded with a visit to the UK.

While in the country, they visited companies to see first-hand how their skills could be put into practice.

One of the winners established a successful restaurant back home.

Companies visited included Walsall bakery Perfection Foods, based in Regal Drive, Pleck, who currently export cake and confectionary to Libya.

Fundraising champion is to get the royal approval

A FUNDRAISING champion who had a diabetes centre named after him at Kidderminster Hospital has been given the royal seal of approval.

Seventy-five-year-old Fred Holland, has been chosen to meet the Prince of Wales and the Duchess of Cornwall at St James's Palace on November 29.

Charity WRVS named him one of its 'Diamond Champions' in recognition of his 42 years' fundraising work and his role as the chairman of Diabetes UK Midlands.

Mr Holland was one of 10 people from the Midlands to receive the honour, following more than 550 original nominations, which were then whittled down to 60.

He was presented with a specially-designed Diamond Champions pin at a ceremony in the Grand Hyatt Hotel in Birmingham and will also receive a certificate signed by the royal couple, who are joint patrons of the awards.

He said: "I just can't believe it. It was such a shock - a lovely one at that. I can't wait for the day to come."

"I felt very, very proud when they announced it. Everyone at the ceremony stood up and applauded me. It was a lovely feeling and a thoroughly enjoyable day."

The judges described him as "a gentleman and a pleasure to work alongside", adding: "He is more than a volunteer: he represents all a volunteer should be." Mr Holland, from Bewdley, has raised more than £140,000 for Diabetes Research.

Roadworks get started

WORK to resurface dozens of roads around Wyre Forest as part of a £3.8 million improvement scheme aimed at reducing the number of potholes is getting under way.

Around 350 routes around Worcestershire have been repaired during the programme of surfacing being carried out by the county council. Workers have carried out surface dressing to cut the number of potholes that could potentially form in the future.

Web of mystery is spun

Headkeeper of the discovery trail Jamie Wood, with the Huntsman spider CECIL, the venomous Australian spider is at the centre of a web of mystery about how he ended up in a popular cafe.

The Australian Huntsman - actually a female - is now in temporary digs at Bewdley's West Midland Safari Park. Described by West Midland Safari Park wildlife director Bob Lawrence as "bigger than the average bathtub spider" - Cecil was taken to a vet's after turning up in Hay-on-Wye last week.

Sian Ward, whose aunts own The Granary cafe in Hay on Wye, captured the spider. Mr Lawrence said: "There had been some Australian backpackers in the cafe so it may have been brought in on their luggage."

Olympic Achievement for Halesowen Company

With a client list that includes Harrods, Bentley and Wembley Stadium, Shaw Stone Surfaces Ltd is being recognised in high places – and the firm's latest commission was no exception.

Brothers Gavin and Gareth Shaw, experienced stonemasons who founded the Halesowen business three years ago, were instructed to manufacture the quartz vanity tops for each of the 133 bathrooms of the new Holiday Inn Hotel at the Olympic Park in Stratford, London. The Hotel was purpose built for the London 2012 Olympic Games and accommodated Olympic officials, athletes as well as spectators.

Shaw Stone Surfaces, which specialises in the design, production and installation of granite work surfaces, was asked to supply and install a quartz vanity top and backsplash in each of the new hotels bathrooms. Shaw Stone Surfaces Managing Director Gavin Shaw said that they had been approached to get involved with the Olympic Hotel after being involved in similar sized projects previously.

Fantastic

"London 2012 will go down as being one of our countries greatest ever sporting occasions. To think that we were part of this great occasion in some small way and that the officials and some athletes prepared themselves at the vanity tops we manufactured is absolutely fantastic."

However, you don't have to be an Olympic gold medallist to take advantage of the quality products supplied by Shaw Stone Surfaces, which fits granite, quartz and marble to kitchens and bathrooms in private homes as well as for independent kitchen specialists, leading retail chains, and the UK's largest home builders and architects.

Blending the vision of design with their stonemasonry skills and the latest advancements in technology, Shaw Stone Surfaces has built its success on supplying quality products and excellent customer service. – visit their factory showroom to find out for yourself.

A banner calling for the hospital to be saved from the axe sits on the balcony of The Beeches which did shut in 1989

Memories of hospital are needed for project

A HISTORY project capturing the changing phases of The Beeches Training Centre and Penn Hospital will be held at Wolverhampton Art Gallery next month.

Local people are being asked to share their memories of the site to produce a book and memorial bank. Situated on the Penn Road, The Beeches is an 18th century grade II listed building and was originally a gentlemen's residence.

During the nineteenth century, it was the home of Lieut. Col. Waterhouse who sold it to Francis Gibbons, one of the oldest and biggest makers of locks and ironmongery.

In 1935, the house was purchased by Wolverhampton Royal

by Charlotte Lilley

Hospital which converted it into a convalescent home for women and children.

Throughout World War Two, patients at the Royal were evacuated to their homes and in 1941, the children's wards moved to the Penn site.

The first ward for seriously ill children opened at the Royal in 1951 and once patients showed signs of improvement, they were sent to The Beeches to recuperate.

Fresh air and sunlight from the large bay window is thought to have contributed to the children becoming well again and visitors walking down the Penn Road often mentioned seeing patients shivering on the balcony.

Young girls were given basic training to look after the children and lived on the top floor of the house.

Their duties included keeping them fed and amused, a hard task considering they were only children themselves.

The Beeches closed in 1989 but is noted for having looked after hundreds of children from Wolverhampton and surrounding areas suffering from serious illnesses such as Polio and Tuberculosis.

It was re-opened in 2004 as The Beeches Training and Education Centre, used for health and social care.

The art gallery project runs from November 17 until December 15. Anyone who would like to get involved should telephone 0121 612 8010.

Kathleen Turner has prepared, with the assistance of Yvonne Bayton, an impressive programme of speakers for next year.

Dr Bob King provided entertainment with his cabaret magic. The audience participated in the "mind reading" acts involving the cards and they tried, but failed, to master the Chinese rings.

The ladies were astonished by the act of levitation involving one of the members and the final acts of illusion, when water was turned to wine and a rabbit was produced out of a hat.

Ann Cooper gave a vote of thanks. Sheila Evans, Barbara Moss and Olive Pigott won the raffle.

At the meeting on November 1 at The British Legion, Val Austwick was introducing the ladies to rug making.

THE WAY I SEE IT

Good news that double dip recession has finally ended

IT'S good news that, with the help of the Olympics, Britain is finally out of the longest double-dip recession since the Second World War.

Here in Dudley we desperately need some good news on the economy.

A one-off boost from the Olympics is welcome, but it is no substitute for a plan to secure and sustain the strong recovery we need to create jobs, get the deficit down and make people better off.

This is no time for complacency and wishful thinking.

This week's figures show underlying growth remains weak and that our economy is only just back to the same size as a year ago - 12 months of damaging flatlining which has seen borrowing rise in the first half of this year.

The truth is George Osborne is way behind when it comes to delivering on the promises he made on jobs and growth and getting the deficit down.

The question for the coming months is whether and how we can catch up all the ground we have lost in the last two years.

FAMILIES

The last few weeks have seen a further round of price rises from the energy companies.

The typical dual fuel bill now comes to £1,310 and according to National Energy Action, there are currently 6.6million households across the UK who cannot afford to heat their homes.

You need a degree in advanced mathematics, as well as hours of spare time to disentangle the hundreds of complex energy tariffs and work out which provides best value.

When David Cameron tells people the answer to sky-high bills is simply to switch tariff he is admitting the Tories do not have a grip on the problem.

Instead of telling consumers they're to blame for not shopping around enough, he should be following Labour's lead and coming up with practical answers.

Labour's has launched the SwitchTogether service which brings people together to switch providers all at once. By helping people to club together, consumers will have more bargaining power and will be able to demand better deals.

I'd urge people in Dudley to look into this scheme which is completely free and also available to people without internet access.

More information can be found on www.switchtogether.org.uk and the scheme will be open until November 25.

GRAZEBROOK

I hope people in Dudley will join me at the Grazebrook Remembrance Service at Grazebrook Park on Sunday November 11.

Remembrance Sunday falls on the 11th this year, which was of course the date in 1918 when hostilities ended in the First World War.

At this year's service we will again come together to remember those who fought and lost their lives to serve their country and uphold the great British values of democracy, equality, freedom, fairness and tolerance.

The service is now in its sixth year and I organise it together with Councillor Shaikat Ali and the Friends of Buffery Park.

The service will be led by the Rev Caroline Wickens and will begin at 9.30am.

TEENAGERS

I was delighted to open a new pop-up shop for unemployed teenagers on Friday.

The shop on Stone Street has been set up by Black Country Training Group and offers first-class help and guidance for young people who are not in education, employment or training.

Times are tough for young people at the moment so initiatives like this which will help to improve their skills and employment prospects are very welcome.

SURGERIES

If you have a personal issue you'd like to raise with me I'm holding surgeries on Friday November 2 and Saturday November 3 in Gornal, Sedgley, Wrens Nest, Woodsetton, Sledmere and Dudley Library.

Call 01384 342 503 or visit ianaustin.co.uk for further details.

Chef Aaron cooks up success at top contest

A CHEF who led a team of cooks in an international cookery challenge has won a prestigious award.

Aaron Darnley, Chef de Partie at The Queen's pub, Belbroughton, near Stourbridge, has won a bronze medal in the IKA Culinary Olympics in Germany.

The 23-year-old was captain of the junior England team from University College Birmingham for the event held between October 5 and 10.

The culinary competition attracts top chefs from around the world.

Aaron's teammates included April Setchley, Tom Campbell, Jake Sheldon, Richard Harvey and Brandon Smith, all currently students at the college.

Aaron, who is from Solihull, started his career at the Birmingham College of Food and is now working under the tutelage of Andy Waters, the head chef at The Queen's.

Scheme to stop drivers putting children at risk

WORK to stop motorists putting Kidderminster children in danger by overtaking near their school crossing has started. Mini traffic islands are being built after some "near misses" recently led to the lollipop warden in Birmingham Road being withdrawn because of safety fears.

Cricketers win awards

CRICKETERS from Dudley and Stourbridge bowled over the judges to clinch three "Oscars" (Outstanding Service to Cricket) - a major accolade for the sport.

North Worcestershire (Dudley) District Cricket Development Group was well represented at the Nat West Oscars, in the Nursery Pavilion at Lords.

Ian Blunt, of Oldswinford Cricket Club, won the Cricket Officials award, while Katie Blunt, also of Oldswinford, won the Young Volunteer of the year.

Worcestershire County Council will install the islands, known as "build-outs" on the hatched areas by the crossing near to Offmore Primary School to prevent overtaking.

The project will cost about £11,000. The work, which follows discussions with residents and councillors, is expected to be completed within two or three days.

Improved warning signs will be installed on the A456 Birmingham Road after the build-outs are completed.

Worcestershire County Council councillor, John Smith, said: "These works will result in the prevention of unsafe overtaking, which has been a hazard for both children, and for crossing patrol staff."

Free car parking plan as part of regeneration

THE 1,900 car parking spaces at the centre of the £200 million regeneration of a Black Country town will be free for shoppers. The spaces will serve customers for the giant Tesco Extra store, and major retailers, restaurants and the eight-screen Odeon cinema being built in West Bromwich.

Supermarket bosses say there will be no charge to use the car park if customers spend a minimum amount in the store. However, that amount has not yet been set.

It will work similar to the scheme in place at Wednesbury's Morrisons store where customers who spend £5 can park for free.

It comes despite the revelation earlier this month that charges would be introduced on the 104-space car park to serve the £11m leisure centre, including swimming pool, on Moor Street, West Bromwich.

Tesco spokesman Jonathan Simpson said: "It will be free parking for up to three hours when customers spend an amount in store. The amount has not been decided just yet."

Almost 65 per cent of the space on the regeneration scheme is now let.

Major retailers have already committed to the development including Primark, Next, JD Sports, Bank, Arcadia and the anchor

by Alex Homer

Tesco Extra store as well as Nandos and Prezzo.

Shoe retailer Deichmann and Phones 4 U were among the latest trio of names to sign up in July, along with restaurant chain Harvester.

Cinema

The scheme will eventually create 2,000 jobs and will also include the 36,000 sq ft eight-screen cinema and restaurant space. It is expected to be open from summer 2013.

Construction is gaining pace on the scheme, which will tie in with regeneration projects masterminded by Sandwell Council.

Are you game to have your reviews online?

Everybody Plays - co-founders Ian Morris and Sarah Hadley

A COMPUTER game expert is looking for families in the Black Country to help expand a successful website by submitting news and reviews.

Ian Morris, aged 25, runs Everybody Plays from his home in Stourbridge and first launched the site around two years ago. It can be accessed at www.everybodyplays.co.uk

The site reviews console games and provides a guide on games families can play together. Ian said the site had been a big success, with a large female and family audience logging on regularly. People seem to think console games are the almost exclusive domain of teenage boys but the market has really opened up over the past few years," he added.

User died hours after taking drug

A MAN died hours after being injected with heroin by a drug dealer who has since been jailed, an inquest heard.

Mark Wills was at home in Caslon Crescent, Stourbridge, when he called dealer Dean Huxley.

Dudley Coroners Court heard Mr Wills, aged 49, asked Huxley to inject him with the drug.

But the following day on August 3, 2011, Mr Wills, was found dead.

Black Country coroner Robin Balmain gave a verdict of death due to misadventure at the inquest in Dudley.

Cause of death was given as cardiac respiratory failure with alcohol, opiates and ischemic heart disease contributing.

Old bangers used to aid good cause

GENEROUS Worcestershire residents are turning their old bangers into cash for St Richard's Hospice.

So far more than £3,180 has been raised through the Giveacar scheme, a social enterprise which collects unwanted and unused cars or motorbikes for charity - turning scrap into cash.

Nineteen cars have already been donated with the cash going to St Richard's in Worcester.

Regardless of their condition, cars are collected free nationwide by Giveacar and sold through an online auction, or disposed of at an authorised facility.

Proceeds from the sale are donated to a charity of the car owner's choice, or one of the Giveacar's partner charities.

College Thai on offer

REVIEWS

Spotlight shines bright on X Factor Nikki

Blood Brothers, Hippodrome, Birmingham

THIS gritty production about a pair of estranged twins has both comical and dark elements that wonderfully complement each other from start to end. The well-selected cast brings the tale to life but it is fair to say the spotlight shone brightest on Tamworth's Nikki Evans of X Factor fame who filled the role of Mrs Johnstone exceptionally well and her voice carried superbly.

Set in Liverpool, the plot focuses on two brothers separated at birth that end up on the opposite side of the tracks, one a middle class school boy, the other a working class miscreant. Their chance encounter and love of local girl Linda (Olivia Sloan) drives them both to madness and ruin.

The role of Wet Wet Wet's Marti Pellow, as the harbinger of doom suits him to a Tee. His voice has lost none of its magic, but at times lacked clarity possibly due to the Scouse accent.

Brothers Eddie (Jordan Bird) and Mickey (Sean Jones) each go their separate ways but never truly stray from the friendship they share.

Tom Mason

Versatile Lakeman heads queue for musical talent

Seth Lakeman, Town Hall, Birmingham

WHEN they handed out musical talent not only was Seth Lakeman at the front of the queue but he also went back for seconds.

He came on to the thumping beat of More than Money then linked straight into Blacksmith's Prayer using the bouzouki, picking up the tempo with his distinctive voice coming clear over the instruments.

All-rounder Lakeman was joined by guest singer Lisbee Stainton for the ballad The Sender from his Barrel House album.

With a change of instrument, one of at least 10 throughout the concert, Lakeman pulled out Solomon Browne. Showing even more versatility for Apple of his Eye, a song about cider making, he took to his fiddle and played pizzicato.

There was another change of instrument for the ballad White Hare which really showed the depth and clarity of his voice and the group moved to Blood Red Sky which had a Latin undertone.

He moved back to the fiddle for The Hurlers and made another change for the Take No Rogues, which featured a banging solo from the double bass.

Lakeman did his signature fiddle solo to end the set with his machine gun movements building up to a Vivaldi Four Seasons-style crescendo.

Joan shows some emotion on home soil

Joan Armatrading Symphony Hall, Birmingham

IT WAS an understated entrance for Joan Armatrading - on her home turf - singing Down To Zero as her opener with her distinctive voice filling the Symphony Hall even before she could be seen.

She played both acoustic and electric guitar with consummate ease and can also hammer out rifts like a seasoned rock star. She also funkyed it up with Show Some Emotion which moved smoothly into Single Life.

Joan used her wonderfully deep voice for another popular hit All The Way From America.

The hall lapped up everything the Emmy Award winner threw at them and even though it's now more than 30 years old she couldn't really get away without playing her biggest success

Love and Affection. She brought a mellower sound in the title track of her new album Starlight and showed real emotion in the haunting ballad The Weakness In Me.

It took Me Myself and I to get the crowd dancing in the aisles and she gave them what they wanted, finishing with Drop The Pilot and the last track on her new album, Summer Kisses.

Switching heavy metal to comedy

FORMER heavy metal drummer turned comedian Stephen Hughes has embarked on his second UK tour.

He will be performing at The Public in West Bromwich on Saturday (November 3) and the following night at Wolverhampton's Civic Hall. A date at the Glee Club in Birmingham follows on November 25.

Hughes, who was with the band Mortal Sin, has appeared on Live At The Apollo, One Night Stand, Stand Up Of The Week and Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow.

Celebrating the music of movies

A SERIES of matinee shows at Dudley Town Hall continues with a celebration of blockbuster movies and musicals.

Theatre: Rolling Back the Years takes place on November 5 at 2pm.

Tickets cost £11 from the box office on 01384 812812 or visit www.dudley.gov.uk/entertainment.

Sounds of Miller

THE classic sounds of the Glenn Miller Orchestra are coming to Dudley.

Band leader Ray McVay will bring the sound of the 1940s to the Black Country on November 17 at 7.30pm.

The show features the Moonlight Serenaders. Tickets cost £18.50 on 01384 812812.

Son of rock and pop legend joins tribute to late father

ROLAN Bolan, the son of T.Rex star Marc Bolan and soul singer Gloria Jones, will be joining the top tribute act to his father, T.Rextasy, in concert at Bilston's Robin 2 venue on Saturday night.

Bolan junior was brought up in Los Angeles and the concert, celebrating Marc Bolan's 65th birthday, marks a rare UK appearance by the 37-year-old singer and songwriter. His glam rock star father was killed in a car accident in September 1977, aged 29.

EastEnders star is now a merry wife of Windsor

SOAP legend Anita Dobson, still most famous as 1980s icon Angie Watts, the wronged wife of Dirty Den in EastEnders, has joined the Royal Shakespeare Company for their latest production in Stratford-upon-Avon.

After winning acclaim for her performances in several plays, the Stepney-born actress has been cast as the gossiping Mistress Quickly in Shakespeare's comedy The Merry Wives of Windsor.

The play was due to open this week, after previews were cancelled due to technical problems, and continues in repertoire at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre until January 12. See www.rsc.org.uk.

During the 1970s Bolan, as leader of T.Rex and solo, had a string of hits and revolutionised the music scene alongside David Bowie and Roxy Music.

His hits included Ride A White Swan, Get It On, Hot Love, Metal Guru, Jeepster, Telegram Sam, 20th Century Boy, I Love To Boogie and Children of the Revolution.

The legacy is continued by T.Rextasy fronted by Bolan soundalike Danielz, who have been gigging around the world for 20 years - a lot longer than T.Rex did.

Rolan Bolan will be performing his own songs and some of his father's hits alongside T.Rextasy, live on stage from 8.30pm.

Tickets are available in advance from the Mount Pleasant venue for £12 (door £13). Call 01902 401211.

Kate Valentine as Musetta in Welsh National Opera's production of La boheme, being staged at Birmingham Hippodrome next week, picture by Catherine Ashmore

New opera season has La boheme

WELSH National Opera return to Birmingham Hippodrome next week with their critically-acclaimed new production of La boheme.

Their four-day visit will also include performances of Handel's oratorio Jephtha and Così fan tutte transferred to an English seaside resort.

This version of Puccini's La boheme is set in early 1900s Paris and features Alex Vicens as Rodolfo, Giselle Allen as Mimì and Kate Valentine as Musetta. It is staged on November 8 and 10.

Mozart's Così fan tutte is updated to a seaside resort in the 1960s in the version by Ben Davis featuring Elizabeth Watts and Marie Flavin. It's on November 9.

Tenor Robert Murray makes his WNO debut as Jephtha, set in war ravaged 1940s Europe, on Wednesday, November 7.

Say Hello Dolly at Grand Theatre

BILSTON Operatic Company presents the musical about romantic matchmaker Dolly Levi, Hello Dolly, at Wolverhampton Grand Theatre next week.

The company will take the audience to 1890s New York for their version of the award-winning show which, when turned into a movie in 1969, made Barbra Streisand a star in the title role.

Maggie Page plays Dolly at the Grand from Tuesday to Saturday, and the big songs include Put On Your Sunday Clothes and, of course, the famous title song.

Spiritual sounds come from Africa

A TRADITIONAL African gospel concert will be performed in Dudley on November 3.

Nkosi Ka Ndlovu & The Experience, will also be recording their latest live CD and DVD at the gig.

Proceeds will go to Mr Ndlovu's former school Zidulini primary in Zimbabwe, where he started a development project in 2009. The show is at Dudley Town Hall at 7pm.

Homeland

Channel 4, 9pm

Admit it – you thought you'd have to wait to the end of the second season for someone to realise war hero-turned-politician Brody was in league with terrorists. Instead, only two episodes into the new season, Saul had found the recording of Brody's confession, Carrie was vindicated, and viewers realised they had no real idea where Homeland was going next. So, prepare to be back on the edge of the sofa, as this week Brody is back in prison – only this time it's on American soil, and he presumably won't have an adorable, tragic child to babysit.

Pick of the Week

Gabriel's political drama mirrors real-life events

Politicians haven't been flavour of the month for, well, rather a few months now... which makes them a brilliant focus for a brand new drama.

Very loosely based on Chris Mullins' A Very British Coup, Secret State stars Gabriel Byrne as Tom Dawkins who, as deputy prime minister, decides to take on the American Petrochemical company Petroflex after a devastating accident on British soil.

But it's not going to be easy for him. As a man who believes in transparency and open government, he's got his work out in tackling vested interests as he goes about the task of finding out the truth behind the accident and getting justice for the families affected.

When the prime minister dies in suspicious circumstances, he's up against heavyweights Ros Yelland and Felix Durrell for the top job – but it's clear neither of his opponents have the victims' best interests at heart in their campaign.

Screen veteran that he is, Byrne is no stranger to gritty roles. You only have to cast your mind back to 2003's Vanity Fair (in which he starred opposite Reese Witherspoon), and more recently his role in In Treatment (for which he won a Golden Globe), to see that this is a man clearly up for a challenge.

But does he feel that the storyline in this is a little too close to home in a country where the government faces no end of cynicism at the present time?

"It sounds like we were imitating the headlines, but actually one of the problems of doing a contemporary thriller is that you have to race to beat the headlines.

"The major incident that happens in this that gives rise to the story is a huge petrochemical explosion in a small town in Northern England, where they're developing a drone fuel.

"Just a week before we finished it, there was a story in the paper about the development of nuclear-powered drones, and a probable scenario where what we've come to regard now as conventional warfare will be obsolete – so tanks, guns, regiments, all that stuff, would be replaced by the possibility of a drone that can fly at jet speeds over continents with a nuclear payload."

However, the actor has no doubts about this drama's success. He explains: "I think the function of a really good political thriller is not providing the answers, but to raise questions.

"And that's why I believe these kinds of films are important, because you come in with the really big ideas on the back of a gripping story.

"One of the things that's interesting about this drama is that we're talking about a politician who speaks the truth, a man of integrity who stands up to the status quo."

One thing's for certain; you'll need to put your brain in to gear – while this isn't going to be relaxed viewing, well done Channel 4 on another promising debate-provoking drama.

Charles Dance, Stephen Dillane, Rupert Graves, Douglas Hodge, Ralph Ineson, Sylvestra Le Touzel, Anna Madeley, Gina McKee, Ruth Negga, Jamie Sives, Al Weaver, Lia Williams, Susan Cookson and Russell Kilminster co-star.

Gabriel Byrne stars in Secret State, Friday, Channel 4, 10pm

Best of the Rest

Monday

Food Unwrapped

Channel 4, 8.30pm

The nights are growing colder – despite our determination to wait, we've had the heating on for weeks – and nothing makes us feel even more cosy than a big, plate of steaming hot tucker. But don't eat it while you're watching this, for goodness sake. This is the last episode of the eye-opening series which has enlightened us as to what really goes into our favourite foods. Matt Tebbutt finds himself in Sweden, and asks, while many smoked fish specialists use traditional smoking chimneys to rack up fish like haddock, how do they smoke products such as sausages, crisps and cheese?

Monroe

ITV1, 9pm

Great ITV medical dramas are few and far between, so considering how watchable this series has been, let's hope a third is in the pipeline. Alas, this is the last in the current series, and there's no shortage of drama for the Gabriel and the team. He throws a stag party for Nick at his flat, joined by Gillespie, Bradley and Jill, but the celebrations are cut short when a traffic accident brings a slew of new patients to St Matthew's. The cast includes Sarah Parish, Tom Riley and Neil Pearson.

Tuesday

Heston's Fantastical Food

Channel 4, 9pm

Heston Blumenthal is back, and once more he'll be tapping into his youth for inspiration. He'll be hoping to bring back the wonder and excitement of childhood food memories and flavours on a monumental scale by super-sizing all manner of treats. The world's biggest 99 Flake and a record-breaking bag of Hula Hoops are on the menu. First up however is the good old breakfast, and he's not doing things by half. Aside from the world's largest boiled egg, he wants to dish up a massive bowl of cereal and the mother of all full Englishes.

Wednesday

Dallas

Channel 5, 9pm

Back in the day, Southfork Ranch may have been owned by oil tycoons, but strangely they could only afford one phone and wire coat hangers. If only JR, Bobby and the rest of the squabbling Ewings knew they were sitting on a bubbling reservoir of black liquid gold, they could have splashed out a bit. Alas, this is the last in the current series, but there's no shortage of drama following Rebecca's violent confrontation with Tommy. She tries to forget her problems as she joins the rest of the Ewings at Bobby's bedside in hospital. Meanwhile, Vicente Cano is plagued by Federal agents just as he is preparing to give Cliff Barnes the Southfork deeds and the South American rights to Christopher's methane company.

Brazil with Michael Palin

BBC1, 9pm

Actor Michael Palin is like a dog with a bone at the moment. He's determined to see every corner of Brazil, and as we reach the third episode of his fascinating travelogue, it's clear he's not willing to leave any stone unturned. He's en route to Rio, one of the world's greatest cities, but stops off in the mineral-rich state of Minas Gerais to visit an old gold mine once owned by the British, before going to see one of the area's vast open-pit iron ore mines – something which is fuelling Brazil's economy. It's then on to Rio De Janeiro, a place which he learns is suffering greatly from armed drug gangs controlling the shanty towns.

Thursday

Emmerdale at 40

ITV1, 8.30pm

To mark Emmerdale's 40th birthday, there were two weddings in the village. The first bride, Katie, ended up wearing her wedding cake, while the second, Chas, did a runner from her own reception. For anywhere else, that would be considered something of a disaster, but as this look back over Emmerdale's history proves, the villagers are used to big days that don't exactly go to plan. Here, we get to reminisce about the time Jimmy and Nicola had to dash to make it to the church on time because they'd been in court.

Brazil with Michael Palin, Wednesday, BBC1, 9pm

Friday

Derren Brown: Fear and Faith

Channel 4, 9pm

Like Derren Brown or not, you can't deny the man has a little bit of genius in him. He's been wowing audiences for years now, and a master of his game, his tricks and mind manipulations are still the best-kept secret in entertainment. For his next trick, in another two-parter, the showman will attempt to remove people's experience of fear through the use of a powerful new drug. Yes, it's another trick that initially we'll all roll our eyes at. But without a doubt we'll be thoroughly transfixed to the telly by the end of the performance, as, whatever Brown claims to be, he does put on a bloomin' good show.

Attenborough's Ark: Natural World Special

BBC2, 9pm

No qualms about it, Sir David Attenborough is the kind of figurehead that will never need an introduction, his name now synonymous with some of the most weird and wonderful inhabitants of the animal kingdom. And yet the veteran broadcaster still doesn't show any signs of slowing the pace anytime soon – not bad going for a man in his mid-eighties. Well, it's been a short while since he last graced our screens, so he's back – this time, discussing the 10 most endangered animals from around the globe that he'd most like to save from extinction. First up, He explains about Darwin's frog, so special because it's the only frog in the world where the male gives birth to his young.

Plan ahead for festive move – the Redrow show homes at Heritage Gardens, where some of the properties will be ready to move into in time for Christmas

Buy now – move in for Christmas

FESTIVE fun in a brand new home in the Black Country could be on the cards for buyers who have the presence of mind to act now. Selected properties at Heritage Gardens in Tipton and Chestnut Walk in Bilston are almost ready to move into.

And as a 'gift' to customers, award-winning Redrow is offering incentives to help get people moving including part exchange, Mastermove and 95 per cent mortgages through the NewBuy initiative. Those who wrap up the purchase of a new home before Christmas will receive an added present in the shape of having the stamp duty paid by Redrow.

Pauline Turnbull, sales director for Redrow Homes (Midlands), commented: "The festive season may only be weeks away, but there's still time for families to move in time for Christmas. In fact, even those with an existing property to sell could be unlocking the door to a brand new home before they've opened the first door on their advent calendar thanks to part exchange. Put simply, we will buy their old home from them so that they can buy one of ours.

"Alternatively, with our Mastermove service we will enlist the help of a tried and tested local agent to sell the customer's home. There's even the chance to own one of our stylish new homes with a five per cent deposit and 95 per cent mortgage with NewBuy."

Between them, Heritage Gardens and Chestnut Walk offer a good choice of three and four-bedroom homes, with prices from £164,995.

Open plan kitchen and dining rooms in the homes make the perfect setting for a festive family feast.

Kitchens in all new Redrow homes are well equipped with integrated top brand name appliances, including oven, hob, microwave and a fridge freezer big enough for the turkey. There are also tall cabinets and extra wide drawers that offer a stylish storage solution for any extra mince pies.

Pauline said: "The bedrooms in our homes are all well proportioned so for those on Santa's 'nice list' there'll be no need to worry about where to keep presents on Boxing Day and beyond.

Homes are open plan

And for little ones who are concerned Santa won't know they have moved in the run up to Christmas – our sales consultants will make sure the elves know."

Visit Heritage Gardens in Upper Church Lane, Tipton, or Chestnut Walk in Dudley Street in Bilston, where the show homes are open daily from 10am to 5.30pm.

Fascination with the first sighting of the new Mokka

NO sooner had we pulled into a layby on the autobahn north of Hamburg to swap drivers on the launch of Vauxhall's new Mokka than the couple in an Opel parked ahead of us got out and started towards our car.

Minutes before, they'd passed us (both cars 'enjoying' the lack of a speed limit on this stretch of motorway) and were clearly fascinated with their first sight of the Mokka, especially as ours carried Vauxhall badges, not the lightning flash of the Opel brand, German sister to the British machines with a Luton base.

Turned out the couple, just into retirement, had both worked for Opel at its HQ and wanted a look at the newcomer. They liked it and may already have added the Mokka to the list of possible Opels for consideration at car change time. With limbs less supple than in younger days, a tallish car like the Mokka ees) isn't going to catch the eye of passing motorists. Inside, this Korean built but German designed machine, looks rather severe and sensible in a typically Teutonic manner, but very nicely put together.

Promising start

Priced from £15,995, it comes with the choice of two petrol engines (1.4 and 1.6 litres) and a 1.7 litre diesel, with the latter likely to take more than half the sales in the UK. You can order your Mokka with all-wheel drive, the rears kicking in automatically when the front tyres start to lose traction, perhaps on the wet grass of a temporary car park or on a snowy drive to work. Approaching half of all British buyers are expected to take the all-wheel-drive route.

What engine drives those wheels depends on the buyer's needs and depth of pocket and, with the evidence of my ears, how much he or she values a quiet cockpit. The diesel Mokka, tried first, was never less than gruff (at a British motorway cruise) but ask it to accelerate from any speed and gruff turns to an irritating growl. It was enough to make me keen to try a petrol model as soon as possible.

Ah! That's better was my instant reaction. Because it's got petrol in its veins, the engine needs to be worked harder than the diesel but it stayed (much) quieter all the same. Mum might now hear the pleas of her little angels in the backseats about stopping for a burger.

Namecheck: Why Mokka? The best answer from the Vauxhall brass involved an association with mocha coffee, a caffe latte variant with added chocolate. But they really weren't sure.

Vauxhall is green with pride over their Corsa

The new Corsa 1.3 CDTi EcoFlex will be greener than any Vauxhall apart from the Ampera

VAUXHALL has announced a new variant of the Corsa with lower CO2 emissions than any production by the company except the Ampera.

Producing just 88g/km of carbon dioxide in three-door form, the latest Corsa 1.3 CDTi EcoFlex's figures are 26 per cent lower than those of the first Corsa EcoFlex five years ago.

Peak combined fuel consumption for the new model is 85.6mpg, again for the lighter three-door model.

A five-door version is available with efficiency statistics of 89g/km and 83.1mpg.

The three-door represents a 6g/km and 2.4mpg improvement over the 2011 version of the same car.

All the improvements have come through small upgrades within the engine circuit.

Power and torque from the diesel engine stand at 94bhp and 140lb/ft, the latter of which is available in the ideal rev range, from 1,750 to 3,250rpm.

Top speed is 109mph and 0-62mph takes 12.3 seconds.

The wider Corsa range should now benefit from a more comfortable ride at low speeds, especially around town.

The suspension and damping characteristics have been altered to increase the car's appeal in its natural environment.

All models are available to order now.

would ease their entry and exit. Building it taller will help with putting much younger passengers on board too, as mum or dad leans in to belt the little 'uns into their seats.

And ages in between might find the added space of this small SUV fits their life well. Thousands more motorists all over Europe are finding SUVs the answer these days, turning this part of the car market into a profitable playground for the makers of everything from the Skoda Yeti to Nissan Duke.

Both are formidable competition for Vauxhall's first entry into this healthily expanding sector. At first glance it looks as though the Mokka is off to a promising start. It looks neat and tidy, even if (unlike the car-spotting ex-Opel employ-

Martin is lacklustre visitors' goal hero

Coleshill Town 0 Gornal Athletic 1

BELOW-par Gornal banked another three Midland Alliance three points despite a lacklustre display at Coleshill.

A disappointing first half saw both sides struggle to create any noteworthy openings.

The first chance of the game came five minutes into the second half when Gornal's Calum Martin struck the underside of the bar.

It was Martin who scored the only goal of the game moments later. He latched onto a mistake in the Town defence following a Chris Rabone cross, and shot low into the bottom corner.

Coleshill pressed for an equaliser but lacked any quality in the final third to trouble the Gornal defence.

The home side did have the ball in the net on 88 minutes, but it was disallowed as James Travis had punched the ball into the net.

He was subsequently sent off after receiving his second yellow card of the game.

Dominant Dale hit by late strike

Heather St John's 3 Tivdale 1

TIVDALE went down after going behind in 20 seconds, dominating most of the game and being caught out with a sucker punch.

Saints' Joseph Price beat the returning Tim Beech and unsettled Dale until they began to take control of the midfield and create openings – all wasted.

Orlando Lewis and Kyle Brady missed out, as did full-back Jason Chilton with a superb shot from 25 yards.

The hosts hit a second as Price followed up on a fine Beech save from a free-kick. Brady put another effort just wide, hit the bar and went close again just before half-time before Daniel Tymnan rattle hit Dale's bar.

The second half saw Dale's Orlando Lewis slam home from 12 yards after an effort hit the bar.

They made a double substitution as Aaron Baines and Kyle Hill replaced James Cooper and Todd Evans but Saints' Ryan Nash scored on 88 minutes.

Chances to score missed in home defeat

Kingswinford 2nds 1 West Bromwich 2

KINGSWINFORD looked to quickly move on from last week's defeat at Tamworth by entertaining local rivals West Bromwich.

They made a slow start to the game and allowed West Brom to penetrate into their defending 25 several times – giving the visitors too much respect and too much time on the ball.

Indeed, after about 10 minutes, West Brom took a well deserved lead. Kingswinford tried to find their way back and despite confusion over player positions and lack of general 'team play' – they forced an equaliser through Surjit Takhar.

Kings, however, reverted to slack marking and a mistake in midfield resulted in West Brom quickly breaking and hitting home their second just a few minutes after Kings had equalised.

The rest of the second half saw chances created for both teams but West Brom looked more dangerous, especially on the break and with their aerial threat.

Some stern words were had at half-time regarding the poor first half – especially around the poor

Kingswinford Hockey

marking and the non-early breaking down of the opposition play. Some changes in midfield responsibilities seemed to have an effect and saw Kings create several attacks of their own through Takhar and Bhaddal.

Several goal scoring opportunities were created via open play and short corners but unfortunately none were taken.

The West Brom keeper made some good saves and, although Kings had a good proportion of play in the second half, despairingly, they could not convert their second equaliser.

The second half remained goalless and the final score finished 2-1 to the visitors.

Kingswinford 3rds 1 Aldridge & Walsall 3

Kingswinford thirds welcomed Aldridge and Walsall to the Dell Stadium for a friendly fixture.

Walsall started the game stronger dominating possession and creating chances but were kept out by fine saves from Glenn Dunn.

Walsall continued to dominate possession and took the lead with a well taken strike before doubling their lead shortly before half time.

At half-time captain Gordon Elcock made a tactical change in order to combat Aldridge and Walsall's domination but this seemed to have little effect with a third goal being scored straight after the restart.

K'ford regrouped after the third goal and started to work harder to gain possession. This effort paid off as Elliot Steedman finished after good skills by Thomas Hickman. With little time left Kings pressed hard but to no avail.

Making a splash for place in nationals

A GROUP of local swimmers are making waves after securing their places in a top national competition.

Megan Dudley, 15, Lucy Furnell, 14, Becky Bradley, 15, and Nat Dingley, 15, all members of Stourbridge Swimming Club, qualified in the intermediate medley and freestyle relay races while competing for Thorns School and Community College in the trials of the 2012/2013 Secondary School Team Championships.

They will now compete in the national finals to be held at Coventry Sports and Leisure Centre, Coventry on November 24.

Other members of the swimming club were also successful in making the finals. Tom Asprey, 18, Becki Cole, 18, Ellie Lord, 17, Sam Tromans, 17, Lauren Sanders, 16, and Hannah Williams, who all attend King Edwards VI College in Stourbridge secured their places.

Pearson hammers out the praise at Heathens

CHAIRMAN Nigel Pearson has praised everyone connected with Dudley Heathens – despite their play-off final heartbreak last week.

The former Cradley club missed out on National League glory by a single point under controversial circumstances – but Pearson has still expressed his gratitude to those who have helped them make 2012 so memorable.

"I'd just like to praise everyone connected with the club," he said. "First of all every single rider who has represented us this year. They have worn the race jacket with pride, they know what it means to wear the famous hammer.

"I think Will (Pottinger) and Jan O (Pedersen) have formed a good partnership in the management team. Jan O has worked well with the youngsters in bringing them on, and Will has done a good job with tactics.

"I want to praise all the track staff at Wolverhampton Speedway. They give up their time and it's very much appreciated.

"Wolverhampton Speedway as much as anyone have played their part in bringing Heathens back on track.

"The Supporters' Club, have been a massive support to the Heathens management and riders. HSCC were one of the major reasons why we decided three years ago to take the plunge and go into league racing because of the work they have done and never giving up.

"We also have to say thank you to our main team sponsors and our club partners.

Dudley Heathens

"But above all that, the supporters are fantastic. We owe it to them to make the right choices for the future.

"Our fans have turned out in massive numbers. It's been a difficult year for British speedway, but our crowd levels have held up to what they were two years ago. In fact, with the success of the team we have upped our average attendance."

There has been much talk about Heathens making the step up to the Premier League.

However, Pearson admits they are still undecided but will ensure they make a decision with the best interests of the club at heart.

He said: "We are going to see what the BSPA AGM holds. If we are to consider Premier League membership we need to be sure that it's financial viable."

Fans can offer their views on the way forward with Pearson on the panel at a forum on Thursday, November 8, alongside co-promoters Van Straaten and Gary Patchett at Cradley Heath Liberal Club.

Catalano has her sights set on being No.1

Dudley's Maria Catalano is lining up a shot at glory in the UK Championships at Swindon this weekend

IT COULD be all change at the top when the women's snooker circuit descends on Swindon on Saturday.

Dudley's world No.2 Maria Catalano, who play in the West Midlands Snooker League, has been installed as favourite to claim her first UK

Championship, the third leg of seven on the 2012-13 World Ladies Billiards & Snooker Association tour at Jesters Snooker Hall.

Catalano, still smarting from a 3-0 defeat by Hong Kong's Ng On Yee in the final of the Northern Championship in September, could snatch the No.1 spot from another Dudley player, the absent Reanne Evans.

Evans is the reigning world Ladies champion, having won the title for the seventh successive year in April 2011.

Jones is crowned champ – with style

CONNOR Jones made it through to the national stages of the Clubs for Young People championships in style with a second round stoppage in the Midlands final.

But there was heartbreak for club-mate Assad Junaid, from Lions ABC in Dudley, who was put out after a scruffy contest against Buxton ABC's Jon Pickering.

However, Jones was crowned Midlands champion after overpowering Earl Shilton ABC's Noel Gilbert in the 75kg decider of Class A, for boxers born in 1996.

Gilbert was pulled out having already been knocked down moments before, sinking to the canvas under the might of a left hook to the body from Jones.

The fallen fighter rose and gamely answered the count but came under fire again as Jones went to work on the head and body, forcing the referee to step in.

In truth, Gilbert was lucky to survive the first round, after taking heavy shots from the opening bell, which could have forced his retirement at the end of the session.

Junaid boxed at 70kg in Class B – for fighters born in 1995 – but didn't perform to his best as he got pulled into an ugly fight with Pickering over three rounds.

His quality shots didn't come off as Pickering smothered his work and continued to frustrate Junaid, who ran out of ideas as his CYP dream came to an end.

Jones was left all-too-pleased with his work at Hinckley United FC on Sunday as he progressed to the national stages with a statement of intent going forward.

Plasterer's whitewash

BRIERLEY HILL'S Mark Jones whitewashed former BDO world champion Mark Webster in the first round of the PDC Dutch Darts Masters.

The 42-year-old plasterer thumped the Welshman 6-0 at the European Tour event the Van Der Valk Hotel in Nuland, Holland, on Friday night.

But Jones came a cropper in the second round as he struggled to get near Kim Huybrechts, the Dane winning 6-2 on his run to the semi-final.

Team GB day for Paige after first win

by Craig Birch

PAIGE GOODYEAR spent a day at Team GB after trainer Darren McDermott got her a place at a training camp in Sheffield – following her very first fight.

Goodyear made her winning amateur debut two weeks ago on a Beartown ABC club show in Congleton, Cheshire, beating home fighter Olivia Craig.

The 11-year-old, of Wren's Nest, was boxing at 45kg for Brooklands ABC, the club run out of McDermott's gym at his home in Woodsetton, Dudley.

McDermott, 34, was an accomplished pro and an English middleweight champion who also competed for the British and Commonwealth titles.

"The Black Country Bodysnatcher" retired two years ago after suffering bleeding to the brain through a training injury, which required surgery.

'Macca' started his club last year and is excited by the potential of Goodyear, who boxes on a Wodensborough ABC club show tonight. She will be buoyed by the experience of joining 38 girls at the English Institute of Sport.

McDermott said: "Paige is a very clever boxer, she's not a fighter, she gets on her toes and reacts sharply, keeping her range nice and long."

"She's a lot sharper than I was, put it that way! She hits hard, as well, I can feel that whenever we are on the pads."

"She's got a bit of a dig on her and it's all good experience for her, she's got a fight this week and I want her to stay busy. She's 12 months too young to go into the ABAs this time but she will win a title next year, I guarantee you."

Brooklands ABC won a fight for the first time in a national competition last month through Kingswinford's Mitchell Stevens.

The hairdresser, 19, made it to the second round of the Clubs for Young People championships in Class C.

Stevens ran Solihull's Ryan Kelly, who boxes in the Midlands final tomorrow, close in a 17-17 draw but lost on countback.

Paige Goodyear – title tip

No place like home for Town

Dudley Town 3 Willenhall Town 1

IT WAS home sweet home yet again for Dudley Town as they bagged three more West Midlands Premier League points.

A comfortable 3-1 victory over struggling Willenhall made it seven wins out of eight for the Robins in front of their own fans so far this season.

The home side took little time to extract punishment on a side that has lost all but one of their league fixtures this season when five minutes in Rion Francis-Mills ploughed through the Lockmen's defence and drove the ball past the despairing Matt Rodgers.

Dudley kept up their pressure as the half drew on but Willenhall were coming more and more into the game.

The visitors made the most of their bright period when James McKenzie scrambled home after Aaron O'Malley had blocked a shot from Phil Burkett with 25 minutes played.

With the prospect of local rivals Willenhall picking up only their fourth point of the season at their expense, the hosts turned up the pressure and were unlucky not to retake the lead just after the half-hour mark when Ben Stretton's looping shot was well held by former Dudley shot-stopper Rodgers.

With six minutes of the half left, Dudley struck through Francis-Mills who notched his 13th goal of the season.

Dudley made it three on 52 minutes with Ben Stretton powering home his first league goal since returning to the club via spells at Gornal Athletic and Causeway United.

Town visiting local rivals Dudley Sports on Saturday.

The Chronicle, a Midland News Association Ltd publication, printed by the company at Kettle, Telford, Thursday, November 1, 2012.

DK DESERVE SECOND VICTORY OF SEASON

Dudley Kingswinford 33 Birmingham Solihull 17
DK deservedly chalked up their second National Two North win of the season with a much-needed win over local rivals Birmingham Solihull.

Bees had back-to-back wins but DK, after a shaky start, won the game well in front of an 800-strong crowd. They were pretty much in full control by half-time but lapses in discipline slowed progress.

Three quick second-half tries put paid to any Bees ambitions – their only reward being a last-minute consolation try.

Changes to the DK side that lost at Westoe saw Gareth Bown, Matt Farrington and Nick Adams replace Simon Fletcher, Rhys Pritchard and Duncan Chance, with Jimmy Gore moving into the centre to replace Bown.

In the pack, Dan Richards and Tom Leach came in for Rich Kelly and Jon Tidswell (both injured).

The pack performed well, with Ed Parry having a stormer in the second row.

A back row of Joe Carpenter, Tom Leach and Danny Hawkins played well as they needed to be in their mettle with regular back row stars such as Pete Knight and Jon Tidswell still out injured.

In the backs, a fully fit Jon Higgins, well served by Connah Jones, caused problems with his distribution, tackling and kicking but DK's man of the match was Stefan Shillingford.

Bees attacks foundered on Shillingford and outstanding defence was matched by the power and strength of running in attack.

After a cautious opening Bees got an eighth minute try from broken play. DK hesitated for the whistle after a Bees knock-on for full back and top scorer Oscar Heath to take the ball from the right wing fully 30 metres to the posts.

DK Rugby

Scrum half Jack Jolly converted for Bees to lead 0-7. DK missed an easy chance on 13 minutes when, after springing the Bee's defence a lousy final pass eluded Nick Adams who looked certain to score.

Bees went 0-10 up after 20 minutes with a Jack Jolly penalty and DK lost Dan Shakespeare to injury.

He was replaced by Rich Kelley but further disappointment for DK followed on 22 minutes as great skill from Matt Farrington saw him break clear and chip for the line only to be cynically flattened off the ball.

A try looked a formality but all DK got was a penalty and the offender a yellow card. DK got a well-deserved try after 25 minutes.

A flowing attack followed by a devastating change of angle from Stefan Shillingford split the cover and let skipper Ed Parry in for the try. Gareth Bown's conversion made it 7-10.

DK began to gel but Tom Bissell was harshly yellow carded for tripping when it seemed as though the Bees forward had actually tripped himself up. The home side survived with 14 men and attacked the line with vigour.

Another strong break from Shillingford, carried on by Parry, had Bees in a spin and scrum half Jones got in to score with the visitor's cover in disarray.

Bown's conversion saw DK take a 14-10 lead they would not relinquish.

They did, however, lose prop Danny Richards to a yellow card for pulling down a maul after 39 minutes.

It was all DK at the start of the second half. A powerful break from Shillingford was again carried on by Parry and Kelley – involved twice before the ball was spun out to Jon Higgins.

He dummed over for an u/c try on 43 minutes to make it 19-10.

Danny Richards' yellow card meant uncontested scrums for a while and the DK lineup faltered a little but a strong wave of attacks after 55 minutes led to a fourth bonus point DK try.

Several fast-flowing phases saw good work from Richards, who twice rescued the ball for DK to finally swing the ball right to Shillingford who cruised in for the try.

Bown's conversion saw DK 26-10 up and looking very confident.

DK duly added a fifth try after 64 minutes. Again very impressive approach play with the ball distributed at pace proved too much for the Bees cover and hardworking flanker Joe Carpenter crossed for a fine try.

Bown was successful with the boot and DK were in overdrive at 33-10.

The home side had further chances to score towards the end but were a little over-eager and were unable to break through again.

Bees got a consolation try after 79 minutes as replacement back Robert Brown exploited a rare gap in DK cover to touch down. Jack Jolly's conversion made the final score 33-17 to DK.

Next week DK are at home to Hull. KO 2.15pm.
